501(c)(12)(H)(ii)

For purposes of clause (i), the term “load loss transaction” means any wholesale or retail sale of electric energy (other than to members) to the extent that the aggregate sales during the recovery period do not exceed the load loss mitigation sales limit for such period.

501(c)(12)(H)(iii)

501(c)(12)(H)(iv)

For purposes of clause (iii), a mutual or cooperative electric company's annual load loss for each year of the recovery period is the amount (if any) by which—

501(c)(15)(A)(i)(II)

more than 50 percent of such gross receipts consist of premiums, or

501(c)(15)(A)(ii)

in the case of a mutual insurance company—

501(c)(15)(A)(ii)(I)

the gross receipts of which for the taxable year do not exceed $150,000, and more than 35 percent of such gross receipts consist of premiums.

501(c)(15)(A)(ii)(II)

Clause (ii) shall not apply to a company if any employee of the company, or a member of the employee's family (as defined in section 2032A(e)(2)), is an employee of another company exempt from taxation by reason of this paragraph (or would be so exempt but for this sentence).

501(c)(15)(B)

For purposes of subparagraph (A), in determining whether any company or association is described in subparagraph (A), such company or association shall be treated as receiving during the taxable year amounts described in subparagraph (A) which are received during such year by all other companies or associations which are members of the same controlled group as the insurance company or association for which the determination is being made.

501(c)(15)(C)

For purposes of subparagraph (B), the term “controlled group” has the meaning given such term by section 831(b)(2)(B)(ii), except that in applying section 831(b)(2)(B)(ii) for purposes of this subparagraph, subparagraphs (B) and (C) of section 1563(b)(2) shall be disregarded.

501(c)(16)

Exemption shall not be denied any such corporation because it has capital stock, if the dividend rate of such stock is fixed at not to exceed the legal rate of interest in the State of incorporation or 8 percent per annum, whichever is greater, on the value of the consideration for which the stock was issued, and if substantially all such stock (other than nonvoting preferred stock, the owners of which are not entitled or permitted to participate, directly or indirectly, in the profits of the corporation, on dissolution or otherwise, beyond the fixed dividends) is owned by such association, or members thereof; nor shall exemption be denied any such corporation because there is accumulated and maintained by it a reserve required by State law or a reasonable reserve for any necessary purpose.

501(c)(17)

501(c)(17)(A)

A trust or trusts forming part of a plan providing for the payment of supplemental unemployment compensation benefits, if—

501(c)(17)(A)(i)

under the plan, it is impossible, at any time prior to the satisfaction of all liabilities, with respect to employees under the plan, for any part of the corpus or income to be (within the taxable year or thereafter) used for, or diverted to, any purpose other than the providing of supplemental unemployment compensation benefits,

501(c)(17)(A)(ii)

such benefits are payable to employees under a classification which is set forth in the plan and which is found by the Secretary not to be discriminatory in favor of employees who are highly compensated employees (within the meaning of section 414(q)), and

501(c)(17)(A)(iii)

such benefits do not discriminate in favor of employees who are highly compensated employees (within the meaning of section 414(q)). A plan shall not be considered discriminatory within the meaning of this clause merely because the benefits received under the plan bear a uniform relationship to the total compensation, or the basic or regular rate of compensation, of the employees covered by the plan.

501(c)(17)(B)

In determining whether a plan meets the requirements of subparagraph (A), any benefits provided under any other plan shall not be taken into consideration, except that a plan shall not be considered discriminatory—

501(c)(17)(B)(i) merely because the benefits under the plan which are first determined in a nondiscriminatory manner within the meaning of subparagraph (A) are then reduced by any sick, accident, or unemployment compensation benefits received under State or Federal law (or reduced by a portion of such benefits if determined in a nondiscriminatory manner), or

501(c)(17)(B)(ii)

merely because the plan provides only for employees who are not eligible to receive sick, accident, or unemployment compensation benefits under State or Federal law the same benefits (or a portion of such benefits if determined in a nondiscriminatory manner) which such employees would receive under such laws if such employees were eligible for such benefits, or merely because the plan provides only for employees who are not eligible under another plan (which meets the requirements of subparagraph (A) of supplemental unemployment compensation benefits provided wholly by the employer the same benefits (or a portion of such benefits if determined in a nondiscriminatory manner) which such employees would receive under such other plan if such employees were eligible under such other plan, but only if the employees eligible under both plans would make a classification which would be nondiscriminatory within the meaning of subparagraph (A).

501(c)(17)(B)(iii)

501(c)(17)(C)

A plan shall be considered to meet the requirements of subparagraph (A) during the whole of any year of the plan if on one day in each quarter it satisfies such requirements.

501(c)(17)(D)

The term “supplemental unemployment compensation benefits” means only—

501(c)(17)(D)(i)

benefits which are paid to an employee because of his involuntary separation from the employment of the employer (whether or not such separation is temporary) resulting directly from a reduction in force, the discontinuance of a plant or operation, or other similar conditions, and

501(c)(17)(D)(ii)

sick and accident benefits subordinate to the benefits described in clause (i).

501(c)(17)(E)

Exemption shall not be denied under subsection (a) to any organization entitled to such exemption as an association described in paragraph (9) of this subsection merely because such organization provides for the payment of supplemental unemployment benefits (as defined in subparagraph (D)(i)).

501(c)(18)

A trust or trusts created before June 25, 1959, forming part of a plan providing for the payment of benefits under a pension plan funded only by contributions of employees, if—

501(c)(18)(A)

such benefits are payable to employees under a classification which is set forth in the plan and which is found by the Secretary not to be discriminatory in favor of employees who are highly compensated employees (within the meaning of section 414(q)),

such benefits do not discriminate in favor of employees who are highly compensated employees (within the meaning of section 414(q)). A plan shall not be considered discriminatory within the meaning of this subparagraph merely because the benefits received under the plan bear a uniform relationship to the total compensation, or the basic or regular rate of compensation, of the employees covered by the plan, and in the case of a plan under which an employee may designate certain contributions as deductible—

501(c)(18)(D)(i)

such contributions do not exceed the amount with respect to which a deduction is allowable under section 219(b)(3),

501(c)(18)(D)(ii)

requirements similar to the requirements of section 401(k)(3)(A)(ii) are met with respect to such elective contributions,

501(c)(18)(D)(iii)

such contributions are treated as elective deferrals for purposes of section 402(g), and

501(c)(18)(D)(iv)

the requirements of section 401(a)(30) are met.

501(c)(20)

An organization or trust which receives contributions because of section 120(c)(5)(C) shall not be prevented from qualifying as an organization described in this paragraph merely because it provides legal services or indemnification against the cost of legal services unassociated with a qualified group legal services plan.

501(c)(21)

501(c)(21)(A)

A trust or trusts established in writing, created or organized in the United States, and contributed to by any person (except an insurance company) if—

501(c)(21)(A)(ii)

no part of the assets of the trust may be used for, or diverted to, any purpose other than—

501(c)(21)(A)(ii)(I)

the purposes described in clause (i),

501(c)(21)(A)(ii)(II)

investment (but only to the extent that the trustee determines that a portion of the assets is not currently needed for the purposes described in clause (i)) in qualified investments, or payment into the Black Lung Disability Trust Fund established under section 9501, or into the general fund of the United States Treasury (other than in satisfaction of any tax or other civil or criminal liability of the person who established or contributed to the trust).

501(c)(21)(A)(ii)(III)

501(c)(21)(B)

No deduction shall be allowed under this chapter for any payment described in subparagraph (A)(i)(IV) from such trust.

501(c)(21)(C)

Payments described in subparagraph (A)(i)(IV) may be made from such trust during a taxable year only to the extent that the aggregate amount of such payments during such taxable year does not exceed the excess (if any), as of the close of the preceding taxable year, of—

501(c)(21)(C)(i)

the fair market value of the assets of the trust, over

501(c)(21)(C)(ii)

110 percent of the present value of the liability described in subparagraph (A)(i)(I) of such person.

The determinations under the preceding sentence shall be made by an independent actuary using actuarial methods and assumptions (not inconsistent with the regulations prescribed under section 192(c)(1)(A)) each of which is reasonable and which are reasonable in the aggregate.

501(c)(21)(D)

501(c)(22)(A)(ii)

to pay reasonable and necessary administrative expenses in connection with the establishment and operation of the trust and the processing of claims against the trust,

no part of the assets of the trust may be used for, or diverted to, any purpose other than—
